Monument to Heroic Jack Barry Father of the American Navy

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, May 16.—Thousands of patriotic Irish-Americans from all sections of the country gathered in Franklin park here today to witness the dedication and unveiling of a bronze statue of Commodore John Barry, the nation's tribute to the heroic Irish patriot of the American revolution, by many called "The Father of the American Navy."

To Miss Elise H. Hepburn, of Philadelphia, great-granddaughter of Commodore Barry, fell the honor of pulling the cord which uncovered the features of the statue, and President Wilson, James J. Reagan, the national president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and other prominent men were on the program to deliver dedicatory addresses. William C. Clarke, son of J. I. C. Clarke, president general of the American-Irish Historical society, read a dedicatory poem written for the occasion by his father.

The monument is a gift of congress through the appropriation in 1906 of $50,000, and the ceremonies today were under the joint auspices of the government and an executive committee representing Irish-American societies throughout the country. They followed a parade of soldiers, sailors, marines and members of many Irish organizations.

TONOPAH SCHOOL UP TO STANDARD SET BY STATE

ANNUAL INSPECTION BY HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.

Dr. George Ordahl, head of the department of education of the University of Nevada, official inspector of the high schools of the state, spent yesterday making the annual inspection of the Tonopah high school. Dr. Ordahl is, by experience, mental equipment and training, highly qualified for his position as inspector, and his findings are accepted as authoritative and scholarly. Near the close of the afternoon session he made an informal address to the students which held their attention as few speakers succeed in holding the attention of a similar audience.

During his remarks to the school Dr. Ordahl delivered opinions and facts, relative to the actual value of education, in a most convincing way. Closest attention on the part of his hearers testified to the magnetism of personality, when an interesting subject is ably presented. Later he will, in accordance with custom, present the conclusions resulting from his tour of inspection to the superintendents and trustees of each high school visited and to the university authorities. Upon his report will be made up the list of high schools worthy of being added to, or retained upon, the list accredited by the university.

Another, and equally as important, inspection of the local schools, grades as well as high school, was made Tuesday and Wednesday of this week by State Superintendent of Public Instruction John Edwards Bray. During the evening of the second day of his visit here Superintendent Bray delivered a scholarly address to the graduates of the first class to be sent out by the State Normal Training school of Nye county.

A promise has been secured from Hugh H. Brown to deliver the commencement address to the graduates of the Tonopah high school when they receive their diplomas on June 5. The seniors consider themselves fortunate to be able to have as their commencement speaker a man who has addressed both the University of Nevada and Stanford.

During the week about 30 scholars returned to the grades after enforced absence due to measles, which has been prevalent of late chiefly among the pupils of the lower grades, and which has proved the cause of serious loss of time, and, in some cases, has endangered promotion through long absence from classes.

The short-story contest, for which a prize was recently offered by Mrs. Hugh Brown, closes this evening at 6 o'clock. After that no stories will be accepted. During the evening a board of judges will convene to decide upon the prize-winner. The best stories submitted will be printed in the next number of the Prospector. The judges selected are Mrs. J. K. Fisher, Mrs. Roy MacDonald, and Dr. R. H. Burdick.

Former Governor Jewett Adams has leased the tailings of the old Reville mill in Nye county to Matt Rosenthal, at present residing in this city. The tailings are supposed to contain considerable values and are from the immense tonnage of silver-lead ores treated at the mill over twenty years ago and which have since lain dormant. The terms of the lease call for operations to begin within sixty days, with 20 per cent royalty on the gross to the lessor. Carson Appeal.

(By Associated Press.)
EAGLE PASS, Tex., May 16.—Before evacuating Monclova, their final stand on the Mexican National railway, the federalists destroyed virtually all American property, according to a dispatch received at Piedras Negras. Shortage of School Books Caused by Stoppage of Tehuantepec R.R.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, May 16.—The taking of Vera Cruz and general demoralization of shipping in Mexico may result in a shortage of text books in California public schools. Managers of California book houses are here conferring with publishers in an effort to trace a shipment valued at $100,000 routed by the isthmus of Tehuantepec. The Mexican route was selected because it was 40 per cent cheaper than the other routes.

ELKS ANNUAL DANCE TO OCCUR MONDAY EVENING, MAY 25

CUT FLOWERS FOR DECORATION
AND BEST ORCHESTRA
IN THE LAND.

Tonopah Lodge of Elks will hold its annual ball on Monday evening, May 25th, when the Elly bunch is here and when the hospitalities of the order will be extended to the ladies who accompany their relatives from Elly and other camps sharing in the initiation ceremony.

The annual ball of the Elks is the leading social event in Tonopah society and it is an occasion to which the leaders of fashion look forward to with eagerness for the display of the latest creations of the milliner and modiste. The dance will be held at Miners' Exchange hall and during the intermission at midnight a banquet will be served at the Elks' club rooms. The latter will be of an elaborate character, but the arrangements have been made with such close calculation for the requirements of the hundreds of members and their ladies that the banquet committee feels that everything will pass off without the slightest hitch.

One of the features of these annual dances is the magnificent display of cut flowers in the decorations and the committee is not going to suffer from comparison with previous efforts, which have always won the admiration of those who attend.

Julius Goldsmith and his orchestra, which has no peer in Nevada, have been engaged for this event and lovers of dancing may rest assured they will have a royal treat reserved for them on the evening of the annual ball.

Owing to the limited accommodations, even by using both halls, it will be necessary to limit the invitations to members of the order, who may secure tickets from the committee.

BIZARRE COSTUMES BARRED FROM THE QUEEN'S DINNERS

DRESSMAKERS PUT TO THEIR WITS' ENDS TO COMPLY WITH RULES.

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, May 16.—Queen Mary unwittingly was the victim of a little conspiracy during her recent visit to France.

Much had been heard here of the English queen's aversion to extremes in fashions. The order was whispered about among the ladies invited to the state dinners that during Queen Mary's visit they should avoid all modern eccentricities of the mode. Some of the women complained that it hardly was consistent with deep respect for royalty to wear one's old clothes, but the idea of conservative dress was carried out generally.

Some of the great dressmakers of Paris, at the queen's command, brought their models to the foreign office, where her majesty was lodged. The queen selected several costumes. The gownmakers were warned beforehand not to show any of the daring and bizarre skirts now in vogue. The creators hastily prepared special designs which were shown to her majesty as absolutely the newest things, which, indeed, they were, since no one else had seen them before. The queen is understood to have been well pleased with the good taste and discretion shown.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—What is said to be the largest ferryboat in the world, the Contra Costa, was launched by the Southern Pacific company at its West Oakland ship yard today.

OPEN REPUDIATION OF A COVENANT BY W. J. BRYAN

SENATOR WALSH, OF MONTANA,
TAXES SECRETARY STATE WITH DUPLICITY.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 16.—The statement that W. J. Bryan deliberately approved the tariff exemption plank in the Democratic platform as a member of the sub-committee on resolutions which prepared the platform, was made in the senate by Walsh, of Montana. He said open repudiation of a solemn covenant by a political party would cause all to recoil from it with horror if proposed by any other than the president. As a substitute for the repeal bill Senator Walsh urged adoption of former President Taft's proposal to submit the controversy to the supreme court as he asked: "Why did we spend four hundred million to build a canal except to aid our shipping interests?"

Mazatlan Water Supply Cut Off and Death Rate Growing Rapidly

(By Associated Press.)
U. S. S. CALIFORNIA, MAZATLAN (Wireless), May 15.—The Mazatlan water supply is still cut off by the besieging rebels. Sickness and the death rate is increasing with alarming rapidity. An outbreak of pestilence is feared. The governor has disarmed the police and it is believed they feared internal revolt. General Obregon, the constitutionalist commander, has given assurances that American and foreign owned property in Tepic territory will be protected.

ECONOMIC ISSUES FURNISH PROBLEM FOR AUSTRIANS

HOW TO ENCOURAGE FLAT OWNERS TO RECEIVE CHILDREN.

(By Associated Press.)
VIENNA, May 15.—The refusal of landlords in Vienna to rent flats to persons with children has become such an obstacle to families of the working classes that they are suffering real hardship in their quest for suitable living quarters. The condition of affairs has been presented to the city council and a proposal made to lower the taxes on houses whose owners would permit children to live in them. While this particular motion was shelved it is not improbable that something may be done in this direction. Since taxes on house property in Vienna amount to more than 42 per cent of the gross rentals, any reduction would be extremely welcome.

Workers living in suburbs are found to be badly crowded, as many as eight persons sometimes occupying a flat that consists of one small room and a kitchen.

Notwithstanding that the Austrian government's tobacco monopoly three years ago increased the retail price of cigars and cigarettes, the smoking habit appears to have held its ground, yielding to the state a clear profit of many million dollars a year. The tobacco monopoly's report for 1912, which has just been issued, shows $42,000,000 profit, an increase of about $2,000,000 over the preceding year.

Cigars had a great falling off, there being only 1,154,000,000 cigars smoked during 1912, a decrease of 82,000,000 as compared with the previous year, but the consumption of cigarettes reached the enormous total of 6,222,000,000.
